

About us

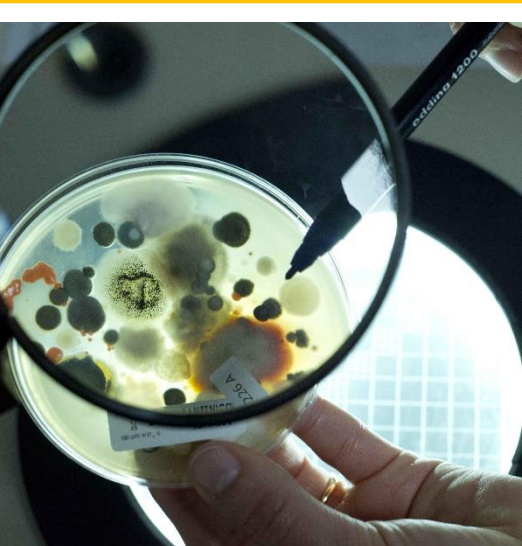

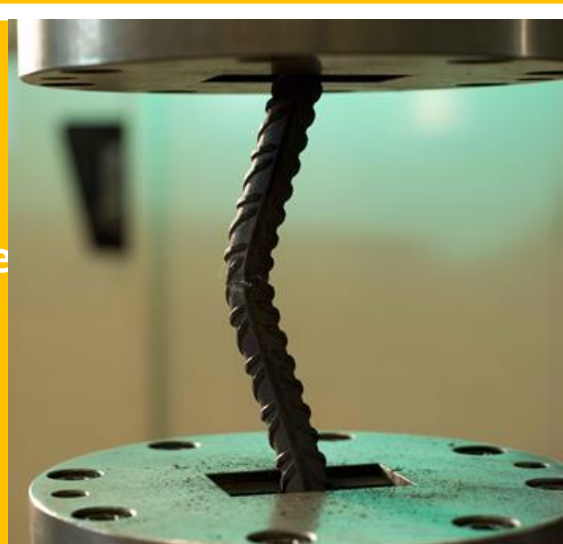

A new IMEKO TC11 has been established in 2020 to cover the horizontal activities of Testing, Inspection and Certification (TIC). IMEKO TC11 is focused on the development of knowledge in "Measurement in Testing, Inspection and Certification" to support Safety & Quality.

Aims

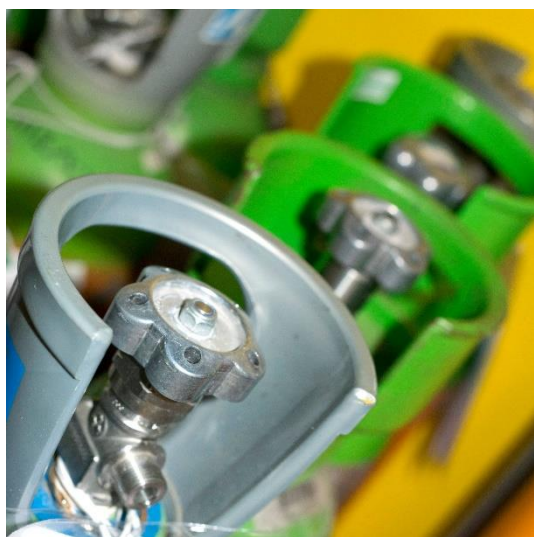

1. The assurance of Safety and Quality of life is increasingly dependent on the critical multi-disciplined testing and inspection work done by Industry, Laboratories, Inspection and other Conformity Assessment Bodies. Conformity operations made worldwide have a huge economic and social impact, relying on measurement to prove compliance of products or services to requirements.

2. IMEKO TC11 aims to bridge the different fields of measurement knowledge from: Academia, Research Institutes (public and private), National Metrology Institutes, Industry, Laboratories, Conformity Assessment Bodies, Manufacturers and other Stakeholders.

3. IMEKO TC11 aims to promote Research, Development & Innovation (R&D&I), capacity building and knowledge transfer in this cross cutting field, to disseminate scientific outcomes for Stakeholders and to provide support to the increasingly important demands of compliance requirements by the Society.
